

Mr. Harry Garland Jones Jr.

December 26, 1940 - December 8, 2016

Harry G. Jones, Jr., passed away on Thursday, December 8, 2016, while residing in Lake County, DeLand, Florida. Mr. Jones served his Country actively for five years, enjoying being a cook in the US Army during his service, part of which time was in Vietnam, and continued service active duty in the National Guard. After leaving the Service, he moved to the DeLand local area and worked for the Department of Transportation maintaining roadway rest areas, retiring from this position.

He very much enjoyed his friends from Stetson Baptist Church where he was a member for many years. His pleasure came from being with others, much conversation among good friends, taking trips, and enjoying the countryside.

Preceding him in death are his Mother and Father, Eunice Joyner Cisco, and Harry Garland Jones. He is survived by his Sister, Sandra Jackson of Daytona Beach, and his Cousins from Alabama, Wayne Hamm and William Cowart.

His celebration of life will be conducted by good friends, William Denston, and Owen Stricklin, whom all ministered and befriended him for many years, knowing him well. Graveside service will be held at DeLand Memorial Gardens, 600 E. Beresford Avenue, DeLand, at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 17, 2016. Online condolences may be made at <http://www.allensummerhill.com>. Allen-Summerhill DeLand is in charge.

Comments

“ I would like to express my sincere sympathy to the Jones Family and am very sorry that I didn't know of Harry's passing before today. I worked with Harry at the FDOT. It was a pleasure to work with Harry & to get to know him . He was a real gentlemen to all of us and will always hold a special place in our hearts. May he rest in peace.
